

6516205976.txt

This is the embodiment of freemarket prosperity. I tried XM on a whim and was hooked in 24 hours. Its time to stop giving preferential treatment to conventional radio. If the NAB is feeling so threatened, they should have conventional radio give the listeners what they want. Less commercials! 20 minutes an hour is just too much!